Yes, with limitations. The area of any existing legally displayed sign may be converted in whole or in part to a non-commercial message, including, but not limited to a campaign message. HOW DOES THE CITY ENFORCE THESE REGULATIONS?

The Code Enforcement Division within the Development Services Department is the City's lead on the enforcement of signs. Sign sweeps are conducted once a week for the 30 days prior to the election. The day of the sign sweep varies each week and is not disclosed.

Complaints should be directed to the Code Enforcement Division, who will investigate and open a code compliance case. Please visit the website to learn how to file a complaint. When necessary, standard code enforcement procedures are followed to gain compliance (warning, followed by citations for continued noncompliance).

WHAT DOES THE CITY DO WITH REMOVED CAMPAIGN SIGNS?

Removed signs will be held by the City for 30 days, during which time the City will make reasonable attempts to notify the candidate or committee of the right to reclaim. Thirty days after the close of the polls for the election, the City will discard or destroy any unclaimed signs.
